Damude Memorial Scholarship

The Board of Pacific Christian School has established the DAMUDE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP in memory of Sheila and Darin Damude, who were tragically taken from us while visiting Thailand in March 1996.

This scholarship is presented annually to either a current or recent graduate involved in either short or long term outreach /mission /service work.

Some examples of the types of outreach/mission /service work which would qualify are: YWAM affiliations, church outreach, local/international street ministry, local/international service projects, NGOs and aid and development work.

1. How has being a student at PCS helped shape who you are and the goals that you have set for yourself?

2. What are your future educational/service goals and where do you plan to study/serve?

3. Please state why you have chosen this particular field of study/service and where you hope it will lead in the future.

4. Estimate your costs for this coming year and please estimate how much money you will be able to put towards your education/service.
