Can you imagine igniting the passion of future innovators? If so, we have a great opportunity for you!

The Role:
As our Information Technology Teacher, you will empower students with the skills and understanding to excel in programming and media design and development. Your classroom could be the soil where seeds are planted for future tech entrepreneurs, developers, and IT leaders.

What We’re Looking For:
• Someone who has strong analytical skills, an interest in information technology, and a commitment to nurturing students’ curiosity, critical thinking, and problem-solving abilities.
• The ability to make complex IT concepts accessible and engaging for all learners.
• A desire to stay updated with the latest industry trends and innovations.
• Strong communication and interpersonal skills to collaborate effectively with students and colleagues.
• A dedication to creating an inclusive and supportive learning environment.

Although PCS is required to seek and give preference to a certificated teacher candidate for this position, we would encourage others with relevant experience to express interest.

The Fine Print:
This position is for the second semester of the 2023/24 school year (January 29 – June 28, 2024). The assignment is 0.57FTE for the semester, with the possibility of additional teaching depending on the successful candidate’s interest and availability. PCS’s teacher grid ranges from $50 233 to $88 262 for full time; however, pay would be pro-rated based on the final assignment percentage.

Ideally, the teacher that we are seeking will:
• possess current British Columbia teacher certification.
• have a vibrant Christian faith and a desire to foster Christian faith formation in young people.
• desire to become an active, contributing, collaborative member of a professional learning community.
• have demonstrated skill in planning for instruction and assessing student learning, as well as strong written and verbal communication skills with both adults and young people.
• have experience in the following areas:
- teaching in a high-school setting
- employing teaching approaches that are responsive to 21st-century learning needs and best practices
- integrating Christian worldview and employing pedagogical practices that reflect and support Christian formation

To apply, please forward the following to Secondary Principal, Lorna Herzog:

- letter of introduction which includes your reasons for applying for this position (and specifically addresses your desire to work at a Christian school)
- résumé
- copy of current-year TRB certification
- Contact information for three references. Not all referees need to comment on the same aspects but, taken together, please ensure that the referees are able to offer insight on character, Christian faith, teaching or other relevant experience, and passion for working with young people.

This posting will remain open until a suitable candidate is hired. Priority consideration will be given to applications received by October 27, 2023.
